Thomas Chippendale

Chippendale was born the only child of John Chippendale (1690–1768), joiner, and his first wife Mary (née Drake) (1693–1729). He received an elementary education at Prince Henry's Grammar School. The Chippendale family had long been involved with the wood working trades and so he probably received his basic training from his father, though ...

Identifying Chippendale Furniture thesprucecrafts

American furniture crafted in the Chippendale style was named after London cabinetmaker Thomas Chippendale's work in the mid 1700s. He became quite famous in his day after publishing The Gentleman and Cabinet Maker's Director, a guide for constructing a variety of furniture pieces.
