It made me proud to be a Catholic and provided me with much insight that was personally satisfying, inspirational and helpful in my discussions with others. I would highly recommend it to others whether they are new to the catholic faith or someone like me looking for a deeper insight into my life long journey as a Catholic. I guess it could also be helpful to anyone wanting to understand why Catholics put so much emphasis on Eucharist as a core concept to our faith.

concept as it applies to Jesus' t of self on the cross, but the same truth applies to us in relation to our families and to every opportunity for communion that we provide in our domestic church.

Eucharist: Spirituality for Adults by Robert E. Barron

This book is written by a highly acclaimed Catholic theologian. His writing is clear and understandable both for the novice and the experienced Roman Catholic. This work could be a text book or it can be read to further one's own spiritual development...that is the genius of Barron's writing. Highly Recommended.
