Shakespeare in America: an Anthology from the Revolution ...

This is a nice anthology from the Library of America series, showing the reception and use of Shakespeare in America from colonial times to the present. There's a lot here: poetry, essays, reviews, and more. I like that the anthology includes African American, Native American, and other populations not normally represented.

Shakespeare in America: An Anthology from the Revolution ...

Then there is P. T. Barnum, who in 1844 attempted to buy Shakespeare's house and ship it back to America—an idea that speaks loudly about the entrepreneurial nature of America. Humor is always there in the middle of the mix.
