Who Killed Confederation Life? The Inside Story

Who Killed Confederation Life looks at the fall of one of Canada's top life insurance companies. In the book, McQueen chronicles the saga of how and why Confederation Life was seized by regulators in the summer of 1994. The company, which had $19 billion in assets and was Canada's fourth largest life insurance company, was the single largest life insurance company to fail in North America, with total losses in the billions.
